The Cranberry Artists Network is a group of over 100 artists dedicated to providing and promoting the arts in Cranberry Township and the surrounding regions.

Formed in early 2014, our group has worked hard to support the arts in our community. We believe that our region is rich with beauty and history, and is deserving of a first class representation of the arts. That is who we are, and that is what we do.

SEPTEMBER FEATURED ARTIST

Gayle Shubert

I received a Bachelor of Arts degree (concentration painting and art history) from Indiana University of Pennsylvania in 1974. After graduation, I worked part time as a docent for Carnegie Museum's Sarah Scaife Art Gallery.

Life happened....fast forward 44 years.

My grandson introduces me to oil pastels. I love the medium and the vibrant colors. I feel like a "newbie" in the art world again! ...and enjoying experimenting and learning with each new piece. I still also enjoy the control of pencil and a favorite of mine since kindergarten, crayon.

MEMBER NEWS

Elizabeth “Betty” Asche Douglas will be the juror for LISTEN, the visual art exhibition component of Sewickley based Sweetwater Center for the Arts 23rd annual MAVUNO FESTIVAL of African American Arts & Culture, scheduled for September 19 - October 19, 2019.

Betty’s found-object assemblage sculpture Multi Emoji has been accepted for inclusion of Group A’s upcoming exhibition What Deepest Remains, scheduled for October 4 - November 3 at the Brew House Gallery, Pittsburgh.

During the month of September, Gayle Shubert and Paul and Jan Jay will have art showing at the Cranberry Township Municipal Center. Gayle’s work will be in the Back Hall Gallery and Paul and Jan are exhibiting in the large Showcase near the Back Hall. On September 7 they are hosting an Artist’s Reception for the public. They will be there to talk about their work from 2:30 - 4 pm. Refreshments will be served.

Debra and James Tobin would like to invite everyone to attend their two-person show TOBIN Debra & James Art & Music at Merrick Art Gallery. The show will run through September 7. They also have a two person display at the Clear-view Federal Credit Union in Sewickley through October 7 and will have pieces on display for the North Hills Art Center Members Show through October 4.

Debra Tobin will be teaching two Glass Mosaic Classes in September at Gilberti Fine Arts - September 10 & 17, 6-9pm, Email gilbertifineart@gmail.com to register and at North Hills Art Center on September 23 and 30th, 7-9pm. Larry Brandstetter

Larry Brandstetter is a self-professed “doodler” who has won more than 14 awards in the past three years for his work. One reviewer says “Amazing Pittsburgh artist. Each piece is detailed and whimsical with hidden treasures you keep finding long after your first glance.”

If you would like to check out Larry’s artwork, it is on exhibit in the following shows

The Latrobe Art Center - 9th Annual Fred Rogers Fine Arts Exhibition. September 3 to 30, 2019. Opening Reception September 5th, 6-8pm. His “in the Neighborhood” tribute to Mr. Rogers was not selected, yoi. But what did get in is “Hands Celebrating” Holy Manos Celebrando, which won a second place ribbon.

North Hills Art Center presents 2019 Annual Members - September 7 to October 4, 2019. Opening Reception and Award Ceremony -Saturday, September 7th 7:00-9:00pm

In November Larry will have a One Man Show, more details to follow.

Our Mission

Cranberry Artists Network was organized by artists to promote an awareness about the value of the arts. Our mission is to build a vibrant appreciation for the arts by connecting artists and their skills with the community.
